2014 ULI Columbus Young Leader Fall Meeting Scholarship Application

One Young Leader member of ULI Columbus will be awarded a scholarship to attend the 2014 Fall Meeting in New York City from October 21-23, 2014. The scholarship will include complimentary registration and a $1500 reimbursement of expenses related to hotel, airfare, local transport, and meals.

Applicants are requested to submit the following:

- Completed application form with basic information, ULI engagement, and essay (400 word maximum) addressing the question: “How will involvement in ULI and attendance at the Fall Meeting serve your long-term professional interests in addition to the growth of our district council?”
- Resume
- Signed letter from employer/school indicating support of application and confirmation that it will not cover applicant’s costs related to the Fall Meeting (see attached form letter; not required if self-employed or unemployed)

The winning candidate will be determined according to the following criteria:

- Level of ULI engagement
- Demonstration of commitment to real estate and land use issues
- Articulation of benefit of ULI involvement and Fall Meeting attendance to applicant’s interests and profession

The winning candidates will be notified by September 22nd. The winning candidates are required to participate in the following activities:

- Attend the ULI East Central Region Mixer on Wednesday, October 22nd (time and location to be determined).
- Write a short essay (300-400 words) summarizing key takeaways from the Fall Meeting, to be posted on the ULI Columbus website.

Applications should be submitted before 11:59 pm on September 17th. Applicants may email one consolidated Word or PDF file (including signed letter of support from employer/school) labeled “LastName_FirstName” to alicia.gaston@uli.org with the subject heading “2014 ULI YLG Fall Meeting Scholarship.” Please do not mail hard copies to ULI Columbus.

Questions may be directed to Alicia Gaston at alicia.gaston@uli.org
